To Whom It May Concern:

A consultation with Kevin Drum regarding prospecting revealed a source of leads that I had not previously mined. This was the untapped resource of former clients who had products I had sold 10-12 years ago.

As a result, I have initially earned $1,100.00 with the potential for many more sales.

The investment of time and money with Kevin Drum of Titan Coaching was indeed a wise investment.

Regardless of your business, I highly recommend Kevin. His knowledge and focus on your problem will prove invaluable.

Sincerely,

Michael Worth
